SENATOR STUHR: Could you tell me...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: It makes them eligible to participate in the Joint Public Agency Act.

SENATOR STUHR: Okay. Can you tell me what that is? I don't...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay, that was...that was LB 87 that we passed last year and that allows governmental entities to form a new governmental entity to discharge joint responsibilities or joint projects.

SENATOR STUHR: Okay. Thank you...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Um-hum.

SENATOR STUHR: ...because that...I had some concern about that. I'll turn my time back to the Chair.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Crosby.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members. Senator Wickersham, I need to...I need to ask you a question, too, because I want to be sure, I think it's Section 45 in the amendment about installment payments or whatever...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...of taxes.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR CROSBY: What bill number did you say that was?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That was...well, that wasn't really...the provisions that you see there are not really the provisions you would have seen in a bill, but it arose out of the public hearing and the discussion around LB 1048.

SENATOR CROSBY: LB 1048, okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yeah, but, Senator,...
